Commission a Tune

Our Commission a Tune service is a very special and unique way to celebrate.

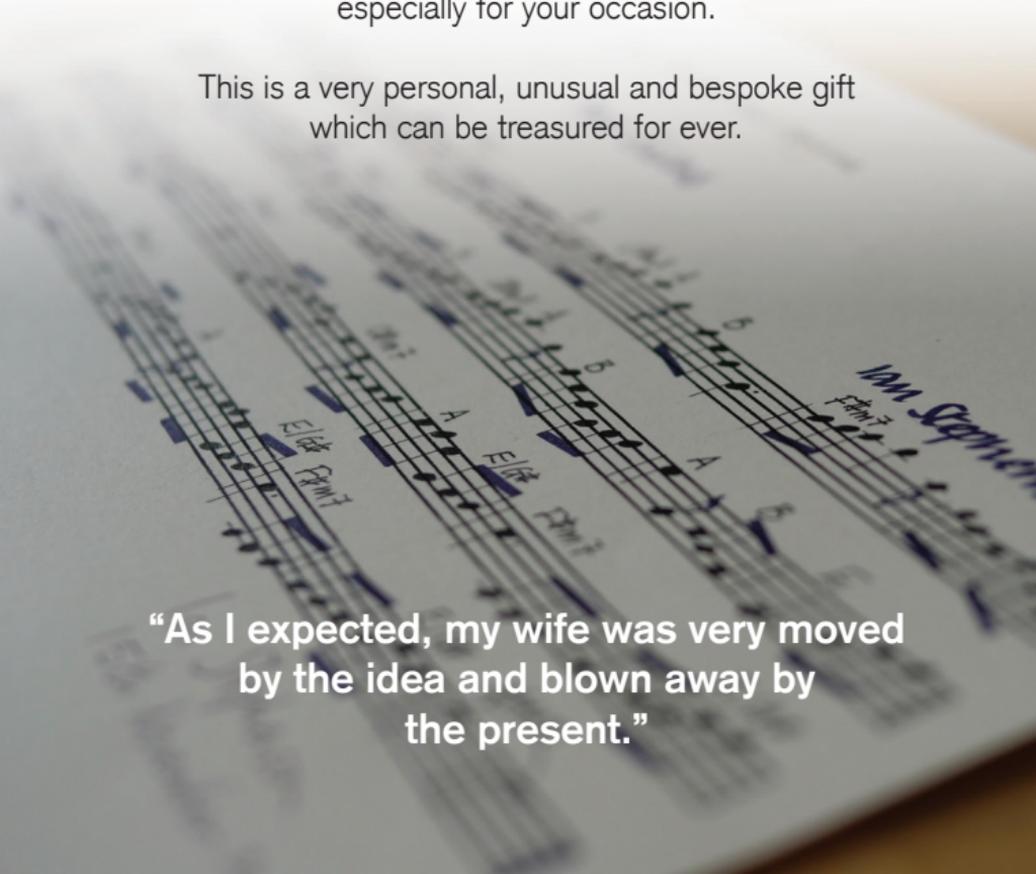

In the North East tradition, new tunes have been written for centuries to honour people or places or to mark significant events.

Our talented and experienced composers will write a special tune in the traditional style and produce a recording and manuscript of the commissioned piece for you.

Each composition is original and is written especially for your occasion.

This is a very personal, unusual and bespoke gift which can be treasured for ever.

A close-up photograph of a handwritten musical manuscript on aged, yellowed paper. The manuscript features several staves of music with blue ink. The handwriting is in a cursive style, and there are some markings and notes visible. The paper shows signs of age, with some discoloration and wear. The text is partially obscured by the musical notation.

“As I expected, my wife was very moved by the idea and blown away by the present.”

Northumbrian Pipes

The Northumbrian Pipes bring the very essence of the North East to a couple's special day.

Pipers are traditionally used:

- to accompany the bride down the aisle
- to provide music during the signing of the register
- to lead the newlyweds from the ceremony
- to play the guests into the wedding breakfast
- to provide background music at the reception

Bring the unique, sweet sound of the Northumbrian pipes to your special occasion. The traditional instrument of the North East of England is ideally suited to indoor events.

Ceilidh Band

A Ceilidh Band can provide the perfect evening entertainment for a wedding, and can be a fun, informal way to break the ice.

A ceilidh is a night of traditional dancing where everyone can join in, regardless of age or ability.

No previous experience is necessary, as the band will bring a 'caller' who will explain how to do each dance before it starts and keep you right at all times.

All our ceilidh bands provide their own PA system.
